PERSONAL DETAILS OF JOHN RAN-

DOLPHIN OF BOSTON.

His appearance and manners—His Learning and Eloquence—His beauty is much and pre-eminently his personal qualities.

In the "Old Convention" of 1850, which had no less than 1,000 members, he was appealed to the public for the support of his cause. He did not succeed.

He was then a young man whose appearance attracted and fixed all eyes upon him.

He was then about twenty years of age, and looked older.

His face was almost the color of parasol, and beneath those thin eyebrows, a pair of dark, expressive eyes.

The omission may disappoint some of our readers, especially those who have not seen him.

He was then a young man, with a strong interest for the slaves.
